

Gaskill which deed is dated September 22, 1860 and recorded with Worcester District Deeds, Book 639, Page 47.

The second parcel being a certain tract of woodland situated in said Mendon on the northerly side of the old Boston and Hartford Turnpike (County Road) containing twenty-nine (29) acres and seven (7) rods more or less and bounded and described as follows, to wit:- Beginning on said road at other land conveyed to the grantor by the grantees by another deed of even date; thence N. $49\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ E. 73 rods more or less to the Town Line between said Mendon and Hopedale and bounding northerly on other land of the said grantor described above as the "first parcel;" thence turning and running southerly and bounding easterly on said Town Line 123 rods to said Boston and Hartford Turnpike (County Road); thence turning and running northwesterly by and with said turnpike road 123 rods to the point of beginning.

Meaning and intending and hereby conveying the same and all of the same premises conveyed by Welcome Staples to John S. Gaskill by deed dated March 18, 1840 and recorded with Worcester District Deeds, Book 350, Page 515.

The third parcel being a certain tract of land situated in the central part of Mendon containing one acre more or less and bounded and described as follows, to wit:- Beginning at the intersection of the southerly side of George Street with the easterly side of the County Road leading from Worcester through Mendon to Providence; thence easterly by and with and bounding northerly on said George Street to the Quaker Graveyard; thence southerly by and with and bounding easterly on said graveyard to land now or formerly of one Walter A. Gaskill; thence northwesterly and bounding southerly and southwesterly partly on land of Walter A. Gaskill and partly on said road leading through Mendon from Worcester to Providence to the place of beginning.

Meaning and intending and hereby conveying the same and all of the same premises described in a deed of Nathan George to John S. Gaskill, which deed is dated March 20, 1867 and recorded with Worcester District Deeds, Book 755, Page 36.

The fourth parcel of land being a certain tract or parcel of land together with all the buildings thereon standing in said Mendon containing fifty (50) acres more or less and bounded and described as follows, to wit:- Beginning at a heap of stones on the northerly side of George Street at a corner of land now or formerly of Richard Harding; thence running easterly and bounding southerly on said road about seventy-five (75) rods to a road leading from Mendon by Westcotts Mill to Milford, which road is a continuation of said George Street; bounded easterly on said last mentioned road about one hundred (100) rods to the Hopedale-Mendon Town Line; thence northerly and bounding easterly on said Town Line about sixteen (16) rods to land now of one Look, formerly of one Drisko to a heap of stones; thence W. about 33° S. 108 rods to a heap of stones; thence N. $7\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ W. 10 rods to a heap of stones; thence W. 15° S. 20 rods to the old Streeter Road (discontinued by Mendon in 1916); the last three lines bounding northerly on land now of said Look, formerly of said Drisko; thence southerly on said last mentioned Streeter Road about fifty-five (55) rods to land now or formerly of one Richard Harding; thence bounding on said Harding land to the point of beginning.

This parcel is subject to any reservations, easements, or privileges of record, if any there be now existing, especially those mentioned in the deed of Naum Gaskill to John S. Gaskill hereinafter mentioned.

Meaning and intending and hereby conveying the same and all of the same premises described in a deed of Naum Gaskill to John S. Gaskill, which deed is dated March 23, 1840 and recorded with Worcester District Deeds, Book 350, Page 513.

Meaning and intending and hereby conveying the same and all of the same four parcels of land together with buildings thereon described in the deed of Arthur V. Pond, Anna H. Pond, and Clara W. Pond, to me which deed is of even date and to be recorded herewith with Worcester District Deeds.
