

Case 10586.

Davis Bille.

I, Davis Bille, of Mendon, in the County of Worcester, and State of Mass., being of disposing mind and memory, do hereby make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling, all former wills made by me.

I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Susan E. Parsons, all my estate both real and personal, except what my present wife brought with her, or may have brought, since our marriage, I also bequeath to my beloved wife, Maria L. Bille, an annuity of One Hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid yearly during her life, reserving a lien on my real estate, to assure the prompt payment of the same. I hereby nominate and appoint George W. Parsons, Executor of this my last will and testament, and hereby exempt him from giving bonds as the law requires.

In witness whereof, I the aforesaid Davis Bille have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my seal at Mendon, aforesaid, this ninth day of Oct. eighteen hundred and eighty, viz. 1886.

Davis Bille.

Signed, read, published, and declared by Davis Bille, as and for his last will and testament, in our presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto set our hands as witnesses.

Case 10729.

Colbridge Johnson.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Colbridge Johnson, of Lomineter, County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being aged, and in ill health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking, and making null and void, all other last wills and testaments, by me at any time heretofore made.

First. I constitute and appoint, Frederick C. Johnson, my son Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and request that he may be exempt from furnishing securities on his Probate Bond.

Second. I give and bequeath to my son, Densil C. Johnson, the sum of Ten Dollars.

Third. I give, devise, bequeath to my wife, Ruth J. Johnson, all the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease, for and during the term of her natural life, and at her decease, then said rest and residue, to go to my said son, Frederick C. Johnson, and his heirs forever.

In testimony whereof, I the said Colbridge Johnson, hereunto set my hand and seal, and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below, this eleventh day of February, A.D. 1890.

Colbridge Johnson. Seal.

Signed, read, published and declared, by the said Colbridge Johnson, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who in his presence, and in the presence of each other, and at his request, have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

Case 10820.

Loren C. Parker.

Know all men, That I, Loren C. Parker, of Worcester, in the County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being in the enjoyment of full and robust health, and in the possession of a sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring null and void, any and all former wills or instruments, in the nature of a will, by me at any time heretofore made that is to say:

First. I order and direct that all my just and legal debts, funeral expenses, and charges of administration be first paid out of my estate.

Second. All my household furniture, wearing apparel, plate, linen, china, ornaments of the person, books, pictures, and what ever other movable chattels, of the same description, may be in or about the house and premises, in which I may be residing at the time of my decease, I give and bequeath unto my dear wife, Hannah W. Parker, for her own sole use and benefit.

Third. I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Amelia L. Carter, the wife of Saml. P. Carter, of Oxford, in said County of Worcester, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, the same to be paid over to her, for her own sole and separate use, by my Executors, hereinafter named, as soon as may be convenient, and within one year from the date of the Probate of this instrument.

Fourth. All the rest, residue and remainder, of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed, or to which I may in any way be entitled, at the time of my decease, whatever the same may be, wherever it may be, or be situated, or however it may be known, designated or described, I give devise and bequeath unto
