

And also one undivided third part of all my out-lying lands not-specified and devised in this instrument.

And also My watch. Also one hundred dollars in money for painting and repairing his house.

Provided he shall pay one half of the expense of furnishing grave stones for myself and my deceased wife. And also I give to him one undivided half of my farming implements and Carriage.

Item 3^d I give devise and bequeathe to my son Lewis Bates, that-part of my farm lying on the South-ely side of the lane leading to the Saw Mill as far as the Wall at the West-ely end of said lane, with the buildings thereon, And also the Western Barn, and one half of the well and watering trough near said Barn. And also one undivided half of the Wigham lot - also one undivided half of my part of Peach Island lot (so called)
And also one undivided half of the eight-acre lot - near the New York and New England R. R. And also one undivided half of the Saw Mill and the land about it West of the Wells at the end of the lane leading to it. And also one undivided third part of all my out-lying lands not named and devised in this instrument: and also all the Carpeting on the floors of my dwellinghouse.

Providing he shall pay one half of the expense of furnishing grave stones for myself and wife. I also give him one half of farming tools and Carriage.

Item 4th I give and bequeathe to my son Samuel P. Bates, Fourteen Hundred Dollars in Money.