Chedorlaomer Marshall

Worcester, ss. March 31, 1855. Then personally appeared the above named Chedorlaomer Marshall

Before me, J. K. Ware, Justice of the Peace.

Rec'd March 31st 1855 at 2 1/2 PM. Ent'd & Cor'd By Alex. M. Wilder Reg.

Inscribed & delivered in presence of J. K. Ware

I acknowledged the above instrument to be his free act and deed.

with the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging to the said Chedorlaomer Marshall and his heirs and assigns to their use and behoof forever. And I the said Silas W. Winchester for myself and my heirs executors and administrators do covenant with the said Marshall and his heirs and assigns that I am lawfully seized in fee of the aforegranted premises, that they are free from all incumbrances that I have good right to sell and convey the same to the said Marshall as aforesaid and that I will and my heirs executors and administrators shall warrant and defend the same to the said Marshall and his heirs and assigns forever, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons. — Provided Nevertheless that if the said Silas W. Winchester or his heirs executors or administrators shall pay unto the said Marshall or his executors administrators or assigns the sum of four hundred dollars on demand with interest; then this deed in and one promissory note bearing even date with these presents whereby the said Silas W. Winchester promises to pay to the said Marshall the said sum and interest at the times aforesaid shall both be absolutely void. — And provided also that until default of or in the payment of the said sum or interest or of some part thereof or other default as herein provided the mortgage shall have no right to enter and take possession of the premises, — In witness whereof I the said Silas W. Winchester have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty eighth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty three.
