

and 6 links crossing said Tomuck old road to the East side of it; the two last lines bounding on land of Ariel Cook aforesaid; thence North  $57^{\circ}$  East 22 rods and 10 links; thence North  $65\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  East 18 rods on the Easterly side of the said Tomuck old road; thence North  $18^{\circ}$  West 11 rods crossing said Tomuck old road to a corner of wall; thence North  $76^{\circ}$  East 11 rods and 3 links to a turn; thence North  $72^{\circ}$  East 7 rods to a turn; thence North  $78^{\circ}$  East 10 rods to the first mentioned bound; the four last lines bounding on land of Ariel Cook aforesaid. Also one other tract of land lying upon the Easterly side of said first mentioned road, (the tract above described lying wholly upon the Westerly side of said road,) butted and bounded as follows, viz:

Beginning at an abutment of a wall at land formerly owned by Asa Philson deceased, on the Easterly side of the road leading from Mendon to Providence R. I., thence Southeasterly by and with said road to the centre of Quickstream brook; thence Easterly by and with said brook until it comes to the road at the stone arched bridge; thence Northerly by and with said last mentioned road until it comes to the Southeasterly corner of the Necropolis; thence turning and running Westerly by and with the Southern line of said Necropolis to a corner; thence turning and running Northerly by and with the Western line of said Necropolis until it comes to the road leading from the last mentioned road to Medway and Boston; thence turning and running Westerly as the road now runs until it comes to the land of Willard H. Swan at a corner; thence continuing Westerly in a straight line to the bound first mentioned. Also one other tract of land lying in said Mendon, butting Southerly on the last described tract of land, and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at the abutment of a stone wall at the Northwesterly corner of the tract of land last above described, thence by and with the road first above described Northerly to the intersection therewith of the County road leading from Mendon to Medway and Boston; thence turning and running Easterly by and with said road to the East abutment of the bridge across Buddy brook; thence South  $24^{\circ}$  East 25 rods and 14 links to a stake and stones near a large rock at the tract of land last above described; thence turning and running Westerly in a straight line to the bound first mentioned. Together with all the buildings standing thereon, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging. To have and to hold the above granted premises, with all the privileges