

live shall be entitled to receive and shall have conveyed to her or him the whole of said lands & proceeds instead of one half as above provided.

Should the boy be living when the girl arrives at the age of twentyone years, and die before he shall arrive at that age, and if at the time of his death the girl shall not be living, then all of such lands & proceeds which shall not have been conveyed to the girl, shall belong to the mother of said boy, if she be living, otherwise to such of her children that may hereafter be born as shall be living at the time of the death of said boy, and if there be no such children then living, the mother being also dead, the same shall belong to my wife, if living, otherwise to the father of said boy. But should the father of said boy, be not living, then the same shall be regarded as my intestate estate.

Should neither of said grandchildren to wit, Myrtie & Will Est. live to the age of twentyone years immediately after the death of both, the whole of said property shall by the said trustee be conveyed to such person as my daughter shall designate, to be held by the person to whom it shall thus be conveyed in trust for my said daughter, and the person to whom it is thus conveyed shall upon demand made, convey the same to my said daughter, her heirs or assigns.

Should my daughter not survive the said Myrtie and Will Est. the property, which in the last named contingency would have been conveyed in trust for her as aforesaid, shall remain in the hands of the trustee first named, the net income to be applied from time to time as he may think best to aid in the support and education of such children of my daughter as shall be living, and when the first of said children shall have arrived at the age of twentyone years, he or she shall be entitled to receive from the trustee such proportion of the property thus held by him in trust, as one is to the whole number of children then living, and each of said children upon arriving at that age shall be entitled to a portion of what remains in the hands of the trustee to be determined upon the same basis, excluding such child or children as <sup>shall</sup> have already received from the trustee the portions to which he or she was entitled, and no child after having received his or her portion of the Principal shall continue to receive the benefit of any of the income of the residue. If neither my daughter nor any child of her be living for whose benefit the said property can be conveyed or held as aforesaid, or in any contingency wherein said property or any portion of it cannot be conveyed by the trustee in conformity with any of the provisions aforesaid, then such property or such portion thereof shall by him be conveyed to my wife, if living, if she be not living then it shall belong to the father of such deceased grandchild, if he be living, if he be not living, then it shall be regarded as my intestate estate.

I direct my Executor hereinafter to pay to my minor ward, Margaret M. Cool, when she shall arrive at the age of twentyone years, the sum of eight hundred dollars, being what came into my hands from her fathers estate. I say nothing about paying her any interest upon the same because I make no charge for any expenses I may have incurred on her account, let the one offset against the other. If however she shall not live to the age of twentyone years, it is my intention to charge her estate with a reasonable sum for taking care of her since becoming her guardian. I desire her to remain with my wife or daughter during her minority and look to them for that counsel which she will so much need, and I command her to their care and expect them to do for her generously in such way as will be most for her benefit.

The residue of my estate, Real, Personal or mist I give bequeath and desire to my daughter Bernette B. Williams, she to pay all my just debts and expenses of administration.

I nominate and appoint the said Bernette B. Williams sole executor of this will.

Dated at Blockton this twentyfifth day of May in the year 1862.
