5th. All the rest and residue of the estate, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or which I shall be entitled to at the time of my decease, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatever name or nature and wherever situated, I give, devise and bequeath, to my beloved daughter Ellen C. Barry, with the expectation, and this bequest is made upon the express condition, that my said daughter Ellen C. Barry shall provide a home, and support and care for her mother as long as her mother shall live.

6th. I nominate my said daughter Ellen C. Barry, to be the executor of this will, and I request that she shall be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on her bond as such executrix.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

John Barry.

On this twenty-seventh day of July A. D. 1894, John Barry, of Milford, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his last will; and as witnesses thereof, we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Case 23106.

Martha A. Van Orman.

Be it Remembered that I, Martha A. Van Orman, of the city of Worcester, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

Firstly. All my household furniture to be divided equally, between my four nieces, Minnie S. Garron, of Morris, N. H., Alice W. Whitney and Sicie Perkins, both of Springfield, Vermont, and Mary A. Sherwood, of Binghamton, N. Y.

Secondly. One half dozen silver tea spoons marked with an old English "W" to my above mentioned niece Minnie S. Garron.

Thirdly. One half dozen silver tea spoons marked "M. A. V." to my above mentioned niece Mary A. Sherwood.

Fourthly. All the remainder of my property, whether real or personal or whatever nature or description, to be equally divided between my nieces, Minnie S. Garron, of Morris, N. H., Alice W. Whitney and Sicie Perkins, both of Springfield, Vermont, and Mary A. Sherwood, of Binghamton, N. Y.

Fifthly. I expressly stipulate and desire that all the aforesaid bequests and devise shall be subject to a life interest of my husband William H. Van Orman, and that he shall have absolute use and control of all of said property, and any other of which I may die seized or pos-
