Case 13196.

Abbie W. Whiting.

Be it remembered, that I, Abbie W. Whiting, of Uxbridge, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

First. To my beloved husband, Nelson Whiting, of said Uxbridge, I give and bequeath One thousand (1000) dollars.

Second. To my brother, Moses Thompson, of Worcester, in said Commonwealth, I give and bequeath Fifteen hundred (1500) dollars. I also bequeath and give to the said Moses Thompson, a debt belonging to me, and now at my dwelling house.

Third. To my sister, Mary Ann Braman, wife of Charles E. Braman of Millville, in said Commonwealth, I give and bequeath Five hundred (500) dollars. I also give and bequeath to the said Mary Ann Braman, all the wearing apparel, belonging to me at the time of my death.

Fourth. To my brother, Charles B. Thompson, I give and bequeath Three hundred dollars.

Fifth. To William Palmer Braman, son of the said, Charles E.
Braman, and Mary Ann Braman, I give and bequeath Seven hundred (700) dollars.

Sixth. To Charles Leon Thompson, son of the said Charles B.
Thompson and Jane Thompson, his wife, I give and bequeath Seven hundred (700) dollars.

Seventh. To Lillian Estige Thompson, daughter of the said Charles B. Thompson and Jane Thompson, I give and bequeath Seven hundred (700) dollars. I also give and bequeath to the said Lillian Estige Thompson, my bed-bed and the bedding belonging thereto, a set of drawers, which belonged formerly to my mother, my mother's picture, and a picture representing a ship.

Eighth. I give and bequeath to the said Moses Thompson and his executors, One hundred (100) dollars, on trust, strictly for the following purpose, viz: To invest said sum and collect and receive the income accruing from such investment, and after deducting all necessary charges, to apply the remainder of said income, to keeping in repair the burial lot on Prospect Hill Cemetery, where my parents are buried.

Ninth. All the net, residue and remainder of all the property and estate, real, personal and mixed of every description and wherever situated, of which I may be seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled, at the time of my death, I give bequeath and device to my brother and sister, surviving at the time of my decease, in equal shares, to them and their heirs forever.

Tenth. In case the property and estate, left by me, at the time of my decease, should not be sufficient from any cause whatsoever to pay in full the money bequeathed in this will, then I direct that the loss shall fall upon each of the legatees, named in the
