

administrators and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of Five dollars

Third. The net and residue, of my estate, whether real, personal, or mixed, I give and bequeath as follows: The real estate I wish to leave as a home for my beloved wife, Johanna Hackett, and my daughter Ellen Hackett, jointly, as long as my daughter Helen remains unmarried. The personal property that I may die possessed of, I give and bequeath to my wife aforesaid, for her support, and the support of my aforesaid daughter Helen.

If the personal property, be not sufficient for the support of my wife, and daughter Ellen, aforesaid, it is my wish that the real estate be sold for that purpose, at the desire of my wife aforesaid, it is my wish, that whatever of my estate may be left at the time of her decease, it shall become the property of my daughter Helen aforesaid.

Case 13171.

John E. Metcalf.

In the name of God, Amen, I, John E. Metcalf, of Mendon, in the County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Physician, being of good health of body, and of sound disposing mind and memory (praised be God, for the same) do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills, by me at any time heretofore made.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges I dispose of my remaining estate as follows: viz:

1. I give and bequeath, to those of my grand-children, who may be living at my decease, the sum of Twenty five dollars each, to be paid securely at interest during their minority.
2. I give and bequeath, to my niece, Mary L. Stone, if she be living, at my decease, Twenty dollars.
3. I give and bequeath, to my brother, Aaron E. Metcalf, if he be living at my decease, Twenty dollars, and my wearing apparel.
4. I give and bequeath, to Mary H. Holbrook, and Almira L. Thompson, Twenty dollars each, as a token of my regard, for their kind and attentive attention to my late wife, during her long and painful sickness.
5. I give and bequeath, to the Thurber Medical Association my medical library and anatomical specimens.
6. I give and bequeath all the residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, to my beloved wife, John Hoag.
