Patrick Reed

As it is remembered that Patrick Reed of the town of Greenlee, County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts being of sound and disposing mind, do make and declare and publish this my last will and testament.

First I do give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rose Reed one undivided half of the homestead place, also one undivided third of the sum here set forth by me of Samuel Watson, in addition to the above one half of my personal estate including money in bank after paying debts and funeral expenses.

Second I do give and bequeath to my son George Reed one undivided third of the sum here set forth by me of Samuel Watson.

Third I do give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Ellen S Reed, one undivided third of the sum here set forth by me of Samuel Watson, also one undivided half of my homestead place, and in addition to the above one half of my personal estate including money in bank after paying my debts and funeral expenses.

And I do hereby appoint Eli Collier of the town of Greenlee, and state aforesaid, to be my executor of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking, annulling and declaring void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this fifth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Estey No Jay

I know all Men by these Presents:
That I Estey No Jay of Northborough in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills at any time heretofore made by me.

After the payment of my just debts funeral expenses and charges of administration I dispose of the remainder of my estate as follows.

First I give devise and bequeath to my second daughter Ellen M. Jay the sum of One Thousand Dollars to be paid to her in one year after my decease. Should the said Ellen be not be living at the time of my decease then this bequest is to be void and of no effect.

Second I give devise and bequeath to my daughter in law Wannah M. Jay and Charlotte M. Jay the sum of One Thousand Dollars each to be paid to them in one year after my decease. Should the said Wannah and Charlotte be either of them not be living at the time of my decease then the bequest to the deceased is to be void and of no effect.

Third I give devise and bequeath to me to receive for the use of one thousand dollars in trust to pay the same in one year after my decease to the person who when the same is payable shall act as Treasurer of the American Missionary Association, New York City, to be applied under the direction of the Executive Committee of that Association to its charitable uses and purposes.

Fourth I give devise and bequeath all of my estate real and personal, which shall remain after the payment of my just debts, funeral expenses and charges of administration and the above bequest to Calli S. Dymond of Worcester in said County to be disposed of by him as he shall think proper.*

And should the above named Ellen M. Jay, Wannah M.
Jay or Charlotte M. Jay either or all of them not survive me then the same given in the first and second items to each of them as are then deceased are to be included in the remainder given
