

and may convey the same by proper deed or deeds to the purchaser or purchasers absolutely and in fee simple; and such sale shall forever bar me and all persons claiming under me from all right and interest in the granted premises, whether at law or in equity. And out of money arising from such sale the grantee or her representatives shall be entitled to retain all sums then secured by this deed, whether then or thereafter payable, including all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by them by reason of any default in the performance or observance of the said condition, rendering the surplus, if any, to me or my heirs or assigns; and I hereby, for myself and my heirs and assigns, covenant with the grantee and her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns that in case a sale shall be made under the foregoing power I or they will upon request execute, acknowledge and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a deed or deeds of release confirming such sale. And it is agreed that the grantee or his executors, administrators or assigns, or any person or persons in their behalf, may purchase at any sale made as aforesaid, and that no other purchaser shall be answerable for the application of the purchase money: and that, until default in the performance or observance of the condition of this deed, I and my heirs and assigns may hold and enjoy the granted premises and receive the rents and profits thereof. And for the consideration aforesaid I, Emily F. Quigley wife of said Timothy F. Quigley do hereby release unto the said grantee and her heirs and assigns all right of or to both dower and homestead in the granted premises.

In witness whereof, we the said Timothy F. Quigley and Emily F. Quigley hereunto set our hands and seals this First day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight.
