

payable in case of loss to the mortgagee, and the mortgagor shall deposit all of said insurance policies with the mortgagee; that failure to comply with any of the other conditions under which this mortgage is written or failure to pay any of said installments within thirty (30) days from the date when the same becomes due notwithstanding any license or waiver of any prior breach of condition shall make the whole of the balance of said principal sum immediately due and payable at the option of the holder hereof.

For any breach of the statutory condition or for any breach of any condition of this mortgage the mortgagee shall have the statutory power of sale.

In the event the ownership of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, becomes vested in a person other than the mortgagor, the mortgagee may, without notice to the mortgagor, deal with such successor or successors in interest with reference to the mortgage and the debt hereby secured, in the same manner as with the mortgagor, without in any way vitiating or discharging the mortgagor's liability hereunder or upon the debt hereby secured. No sale of the premises hereby mortgaged and no forbearance on the part of the mortgagee and no extension of the time for the payment of the debt hereby secured given by the mortgagee shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change or affect the original liability of the mortgagor herein, either in whole or part.

Wherever the words mortgagor and mortgagee are used herein they shall include their several heirs, executors, administrators, successors, grantees and assigns subject to the limitations of law and of this instrument, and if the context requires, the words mortgagor and mortgagee and the pronouns referring to them shall be construed as plural, neuter or feminine.

I, Sigfrid Thompson, husband of said mortgagor, release to the mortgagee all rights of tenancy by the C U R T E S Y and other interests in the mortgaged premises.

W I T N E S S our hands and seals this ninth day of September 1936.
