

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

First I give to my beloved wife Myra A. Davenport, the rents and profits of my farm known as the Charles A Davenport farm, together with the rents and profits of my meadow land purchased by me from Edward H. Taft: she to have the same during her life, and in case the rents and profits are not sufficient for her own support then it is my will that she shall have such portions of said real estate set aside and sold at public auction, that she shall have sufficient support for herself during her life.

Second I give, bequeath, and devise, all of the personal property, such as my cows, horses, farming tools, hay, grain, and feed, harnesses, wagons and buggies and all of my household furniture, and family stores, books, musical instruments, to my beloved wife Myra A. Davenport outright: and it is my will that my executor hereinafter named shall pass the same over to her, as soon as this will is probated.

Third I give bequeath and devise to my two sons Earnest M. Davenport; and George G. Davenport the remainder of the Charles A Davenport farm and the Edward H. Taft meadow in equal shares, at the decease of my wife, and in case my wife survives either of them, then I give the same out right to the survivor of my wife.

Fourth I give bequeath, and devise, my interest in the Seth T. Davenport farm in equal shares, to share and share alike, to all of my children namely, Samuel D. Davenport: John L. Davenport Jr: Charlotte T. Smith, Estelle E. Proctor, Medora A Pinney, Earnest M. Davenport: and George G. Davenport:

Fifth The remainder and residue of my property whatsoever or wheresoever the same may be, I give bequeath and devise to my two sons in equal shares Earnest M. Davenport: and George G. Davenport.

I hereby nominate Samuel B. Taft of Uxbridge, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to be the executor of this will, and it is my will that he shall be exempt from giving sureties on his official bond as such executor and that his bond shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this twenty ninth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and five

John L. Davenport

On this twenty ninth day of June A. D. 1905, John L. Davenport of Mendon Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his last will: and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Halbert L. Keith.

John W. Esty

George Sawin

Will allowed Oct. 2, 1906

A true record, Attest:

George K. Harlow

Register.

Case 38482

Mary A. Rugg

Will & Codicil

Be it Remembered, that I, Mary A. Rugg of Grafton in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament in the manner and form following, to wit:

First, after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to my niece, Etta Goulding, of Boston in said Commonwealth my china tea set, my silver ware, marked "M. A. B." my family Bible, my best bed and pillows, the large picture of myself and two hundred dollars in money.

Second, to Minnie E. Goulding and Carrie M. Goulding, daughters of said Etta Goulding, I give and bequeath Fifty Dollars each.

Third, To Ida M. Phillips, niece of my late husband, I give and bequeath my book case, together with such books as she may choose, the large portrait of my