Know all men by these presents that I Joseph G. Davenport of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts yeoman, Guardian, of Charles C. P. Hastings a Minor, by order of Hon. Thomas Kimball, Judge of Probate at a Court of Probate, holden at Worcester within and for said County of Worcester, on the seventh day of August 1849, upon the Petition of Anna N. Hastings, Guardian of William S. Hastings, Joseph G. Davenport, Guardian of Charles C. P. Hastings, and Jesse F. Alderman, Guardian of Mary M. H. Hastings, and Anna N. Hastings, said wards being minors and children of Charles C. P. Hastings, late of said Mendon, deceased, intestate, was licensed and duly empowered to sell and pass deeds to convey the whole of the real Estate of said William S. Hastings, Charles C. P. Hastings, Mary M. H. Hastings and Anna N. Hastings, minors, for the purpose of putting out the proceeds thereof, on interest, after paying necessary and proper charges for their maintenance and support

And whereas I the said Joseph G. Davenport having given thirty days public notice of the intended sale, by posting up notifications thereof, as follows to wit, one at the Store of Aldrich & Brother in Mendon, the town where said deceased last dwelt and at the public house kept by Sanford B. Felton
