

Annie Kildie.

In the name of God Amen. I Annie Kildie of Templeton in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Widow, being in good health and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First I hereby constitute and appoint Leonard Stone of Templeton in said County to be sole executor of this my last Will directing my said Executor to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as can be conveniently done. Second, After the payment of my said debts and funeral expenses, I give devise and bequeath unto my dear friend Caroline W. Dodge, wife of Benjamin Dodge of said Templeton, my wearing apparel, my beds, bedding, and all of my household furniture of every name, kind, and description, together with what money, & all monies, that may remain to my estate after the payment aforesaid, and for settling my said estate, and any and all promissory notes, which are uncollected in whole, or in part, and belong to my said estate, and all the rest and residue of my estate to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, to have and to hold the same to her, the said Caroline W. Dodge, her heirs and assigns forever, hereby making and intending to make her, the said Caroline W. my sole legatee, to hold all and singular my estate to her own use and behoof forever.

In witness whereof I have unto set my hand and seal, and publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in the presence of the witnesses named below, this thirteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one.

Annie Kildie. (seal)
