 Henry W. Bellows
 Charles Brightingale

Worcester, ss. A Court of Probate, holden at Worcester on the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1847.

The Instrument heretofore presented, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Richard S. Austin, late of Maryland, in the County of Middlesex deceased, being offered for probate by George H. Fisher, the Executor therein named, and after having been duly given and sworn to by the probate Judge, and Benjamin Brightingale, one of the witnesses thereto, making oath that he saw said testator sign said Will, and that he with Henry W. Bellows attested and subscribed the same as witnesses, in the presence of the testator, who was then of full age, and of sound mind, and it appearing that said testator last died in Huntington, in said County of Worcester, I now certify that said instrument is proved, and decree that the same be approved and allowed, as the last Will and Testament of said decedent.

Wm. S. Thomas, Judge of Probate.

John Clark.

In the name of God Amen, I John Clark of Auburn in the County of Worcester, Esquire being of sound mind & memory, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make & publish this my last Will & Testament in manner & form following. Firstly that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid by Executor hereafter named. Secondly, I give to my wife Rhoda the use and improvement of all my Real & Personal Estate during her life, after my just debts & funeral charges are paid, meaning that my debts and all charges be paid out of my Real Estate.

Thirdly, I give & bequeath to John P. Boyden & Sarah L. Cummings Children of my daughter Sarah P. Boyden, deceased one hundred Dollars each in one year after their said mother's decease.

Fourthly, I give & bequeath to my son John Clark Jr. & his heirs all my Real Estate I may have after his mother's decease by his paying all debts and Expenses as herein directed, also four dollars and twenty cents to the said John Clark during her life equally. Also give to my son John and to my wife Rhoda I may have after her mother's decease, and the one half of my money appear.

Fifthly, I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Clark all the notes and accounts I shall again have which will amount to more than a thousand Dollars, and the one half of wearing apparel I may have.

Sixthly, I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucy P. Clark seven hundred Dollars to be paid to her in one year after her mother's decease & the use of the West front Room & the Chamber over the same with a fire place in the latter & kitchen front & also the room as there and a sufficient quantity of furniture for to keep one fire during winter if she should remain single. Also give her the value of my household furniture to her after her mother's decease except my Desk which I give to my son John. Lastly, I constitute and appoint my son John Clark Jr. & John P. Boyden my Executor, & I direct that this my last Will & Testament hereby reciting all other Wills by me made, be and bequeath to my hand & seal this tenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & forty six.

John Clark S. D.
 Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above John Clark named to be his last Will & Testament, in presence of us who at his request & in his presence have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses to the same.
