

Know all men by these presents

that I, Luther E. Taft, of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in consideration of One Dollar and other valuable considerations, paid by Edward J. Livingston of Milford, in said County, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby remise, release, and forever quitclaim unto the said

Edward J. Livingston a certain tract of land situated on the northeasterly shore of Nipmuck Pond, so called, in said MENDON, bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake at or near the shore of said pond, at other land of the grantor; thence N. 79° 35' E. about 31.8 feet to a drill-hole in a rock; thence following the same course, 68.2 feet to a stake; thence S. 10° 25' E., making a right angle with the course last named, 50 feet to a stake; the last three lines named bounding on other land of the grantor; thence making a right angle, S. 79° 35' W. about 95 feet to a stake at or near the shore of the pond, the last line bounding on land this day conveyed by this grantor to Charles A. Smith; thence by and with the shore of said pond, about 50 feet to the point of beginning. With such rights of way, but none other, to and from the premises over an ancient town way along or near the shore of said pond as I am entitled to grant. Reserving, however, to grantor and his heirs and assigns forever a right of way over a portion of the granted premises two rods in width, measured from the high water line of the shore of said pond, with the further right to him and his heirs and assigns to dedicate said reservation to the public. My title to the premises being derived by deed from my father, Ellis Taft, and by devise under the will of my uncle, George Taft.

Livingston

To have and to hold the granted premises, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, to the said Edward J. Livingston and his heirs and assigns, to their own use and behoof forever.

And I do hereby for myself and my heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant with the said grantee and his heirs and assigns that the granted premises are free from all incumbrances made or suffered by me, and that I will, and my heirs, executors, and administrators shall, warrant and defend the same to the said grantee and his heirs and assigns forever against the lawful claims and demands of all persons claiming by, through, or under me, but against none other.

In witness whereof I, the said Luther E. Taft, being unmarried, hereunto set my hand and seal this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight. Signed and sealed in presence of
