

and devise as follows:

1. To my daughter, Catherine J. O'Sullivan, the land and house No. 73 South Main Street in said Milford, being all the same premises described in deed of William Richardson to me dated December 1, 1875, recorded with Worcester District Deeds, book 968, page 437, together with all the furniture and household goods contained in or about said real estate and owned by me.
2. To my son, John J. O'Sullivan, the farm situate in Mendon in said Commonwealth, being all the same premises described in mortgage deed of Mary McDavitt to Patrick J. O'Sullivan, dated November 26, 1875, recorded with Worcester District Deeds, book 969, page 302, for and during his natural life; and at his decease to my daughters, Susan F. O'Sullivan and Nellie M. O'Donnell and my son, J. Edmund O'Sullivan, to be divided among them in equal shares.
3. To my said daughter, Susan F. O'Sullivan, three hundred dollars.
4. To my said daughter, Nellie M. O'Donnell, one hundred dollars.
5. To my said son, J. Edmund O'Sullivan, one hundred dollars.
6. To my said daughters, Catherine J. O'Sullivan, Susan F. O'Sullivan and Nellie M. O'Donnell, and my sons, John J. O'Sullivan and J. Edmund O'Sullivan, all the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal, to be divided among them in equal shares.

I nominate my said daughter, Catherine J. O'Sullivan, to be the Executrix of this will, and request that she be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on her bond as such Executrix; with full power and authority to sell any part or all of said estate, real and personal, at public or private sale, for the payment of debts, legacies, distribution or any other purpose, and to execute and deliver the necessary instruments to convey and transfer the same.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will, this fourteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Ellen N O Sullivan

On this fourteenth day of October, A. D. 1913, Ellen N. O'Sullivan of Milford, Massachusetts, has signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be her last will, and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Case 55028.

Clara K. Betterley.

Will.

BE IT REMEMBERED that I, Clara K. Betterley, widow, of Winchendon, in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but knowing full well the uncertainty of life, do make this my last WILL and TESTAMENT.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind and nature, and wheresoever situated, to my sons, Judson O. Betterley of Winchendon aforesaid, and Elwyn C. Betterley of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth aforesaid, in equal shares; in the event of the prior death of either of my said sons, then and in that case the issue, if any, of such deceased son shall take the parent's share by right of representation; should either of my said sons die before me without leaving issue, then and in that case I give, devise and bequeath all my said property to the survivor of them.

I hereby nominate my said sons, Judson O. Betterley and Elwyn C. Betterley, to be the executors of this WILL and request that they may be exempt from giving surety or sureties on their official bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I hereunto set my hand this sixteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Clara K Betterley

On this sixteenth day of March, 1912, Clara K. Betterley of Winchendon, Massachusetts, declared the foregoing instrument to be her last WILL and TESTAMENT, and in witness thereof we three do now at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribe our names.
