

Case 42588.

Charles Converse

Will.

Be it remembered that I, Charles Converse of Charlton in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

1. All my property and estate of whatever name or nature I give, bequeath and devise to my wife Cordelia Converse to have and to hold to her and her heirs and assigns forever, except that out of said estate I direct her to set apart the sum of one thousand dollars and invest the same as she shall think best and she is to have the income only of said sum of one thousand dollars during her lifetime to use as she shall see fit, all the rest of my property I give to her outright.

2. After the decease of my said wife it is my will that Louisa J. wife of Foster S. Ray of said Charlton shall have said sum of one thousand dollars and I give and bequeath the same to her.

I nominate my said wife to be executrix of this will and request that she be not required to furnish a surety or sureties on her bond as such executrix or as trustee under my said will

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this thirtieth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight

D. 1908 Charles Converse of Charlton Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his last will: and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.
