David Davenport's Will.

Be it remembered that I David Davenport of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Yeoman, being weak in Body, but of sound and perfect Mind and Memory, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:—

First, I give and bequeath unto my beloved Wife Warty Davenport all Moneys due and owing to me and all my Personal property or estate and goods and chattels of whatsoever name or description, out of which she is to pay all debts which may be due or owing from me, at the time of my decease, and the remainder to be at her disposal forever. I also further give and devise to my said beloved Wife Warty, all the lands and tenements, or in other words, all the Real Estate of which I may die seized, in fee simple, or any lesser Estate, to hold to her the said Warty, her heirs and assigns forever; she paying to each of my Sons, Lewis, Moses, Charles, I David Davenport as they shall severally arrive at the age of Twenty one years, the sum of Fifty Dollars each.

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said beloved Wife Warty Davenport, together with my Friend Seth Hastings of Mendon aforesaid Esquire, sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Nineteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and Twelve.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named David Davenport, to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses to the same.
