

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one Thousand eight Hundred and Forty nine.

Henry Belcher Esq

Signed, sealed and published by the said Henry Belcher to be his last will and testament in presence of us whose names are written.

Mary D. Gilbert

Samuel M. Gilbert

Daniel Gilbert

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Worcester, ss. At a Court of Probate holden at Worcester.

on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1855.

The Instrument hereto annexed having been presented for Probate as the last will and testament of Henry Belcher, late of North Brookfield, in said County, deceased, and it being made to appear that due notice has been given to all persons interested, and no objection being made to the probate of the same; and it being also made evident by the oath of Mary D. Gilbert one of the witnesses thereto, that said instrument was legally executed, and that said testator was, at the time of the execution of the same, of full age, and of sound mind; I now do judge that said instrument is proved, and declare that the same be approved, as the last will and testament of said deceased.

Henry Chapin, Judge of Probate and Insolvency;

Oliver Fairbanks.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Worcester, ss. At a Court of Probate holden at Worcester.

on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1855.

The Instrument hereto annexed having been presented for Probate as the last will and testament of Oliver Fairbanks, late of Holden, in said County, deceased, and due notice having been given to all persons interested, and it appearing, upon examination, on a oath of Binicca Fairbanks & other credible witnesses, that said testator, at the time of the execution of the same, was not of sound mind; I do declare that the same be disallowed.

Henry Chapin Judge of Probate & Insolvency.

James Grant

Be it remembered that I James Grant of Blackstone in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts Yeoman being, of sound and disposing mind, do make and publish and declare this my last will and Testament.
viz. I give and bequeath unto my wife Mary Grant all the property, and estate, real & personal, that I may die seized and possessed of, to be at her sole use and disposal and whom I appoint Executrix of this my last will & Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, seal this sixth day of May, A.D. eight hundred and fifty five.

James Grant Esq

Signed and declared by the said James Grant, as his last will & Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto set our names as witnesses.

Abner Wilcox

Robert Craig

Joseph Hillwell

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Worcester, ss. At a Court of Probate holden at Worcester.

on the seventh day of September, A.D. 1855.

The Instrument hereto annexed having been presented for Probate as the last will and testament of James Grant, late of Blackstone, in said County, deceased, and it being made to appear that due notice has been given to all persons interested, and no objection being made to the probate of the same; and it being also made evident by the oath of Abner Wilcox, one of the witnesses thereto, that said instrument was legally executed, and that said testator was, at the time of the execution of the same, of full age and of sound mind; I now do judge that said instrument is proved, and declare that the same be approved and declared by the last will and testament of said deceased.

Henry Chapin, Judge of Probate and Insolvency.

Valther Hayward.

In the name of God Amen, Valther Hayward.
