H. Benton Staples

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Notary Public for the County of Worcester, holder of a commission in the Southern part of September A.D. 1858.

The instruments hereinafter named, having been presented for Probate as the last will and testament of Nathaniel Hayward, late of Worcester, in said County, deceased; and a codicil thereto, and in being made to appear that due notice has been given to all persons interested, and no objection being made to the probate of the same; and it being also made evident by the oath of H. Benton Staples, one of the witnesses thereto, that said instrument was legally executed, and that said testator was, at the time of the execution of the same, of full age and of sound mind; I now do judge that said instrument are proved, and declare that the same be approved and allowed as the last will and testament of said deceased;

Henry Chapman, Judge of Probate and Notary.

John Lane.
