Rachel G. Hayward

Will.

Be it remembered, that I A A A of Milford in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

I give and devise to my husband Samuel P. Hayward the use, income, interest rents and profits of all my estate real and personal, during his natural life.

The rest and residue of my estate, real personal and mixed I give and devise to my three children, Frank S Hayward, Annie R Staples and Alzie R Hayward share and share alike to them and their heirs and assigns forever

I hereby nominate and appoint my said husband Samuel P Hayward executor of this my last will and testament, and I request that no surities be required on his Probate Bond

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will, this eighth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty five

Rachel G. Hayward

On this eighth day of September A. D. 1885 Rachel G Hayward of Case 26567.

Charles Williams

Receipt.

State of New Hampshire.

Hillsborough, ss.

Court of Probate.

In the Matter of the Estate of Charles Williams.

I, William W. Forbes of Manchester, N. H., certify that I was heretofore appointed by the Judge of Probate for said County of Hillsborough, administrator de bonis non with will annexed of the estate of said Charles Williams, deceased; that said appointment was made after the resignation of Charles A. Williams and Herbert D. Pickering as administrators de bonis non with will annexed of the estate of said deceased; that by an agreement now on file in the records of said Court said administrators were charged with a certain balance, the amount of which was taken into consideration in the decree of distribution made after settlement of my account of administration; that said decree of distribution made after settlement of my account was a final decree closing up the affairs of said estate and released said Williams and Pickering from any liability to further account for the balance in their hands as aforesaid.

I further certify that said Charles A. Williams and Herbert D. Pickering had fully accounted for all estate coming to their hands as ancillary administrators of the estate of Charles Williams in Massachusetts, and that said decree of distribution took into consideration all funds and estate coming into the hands of Charles A. Williams and Herbert D. Pickering as ancillary administrators of the estate of said Charles Williams by appointment of the Judge of Probate for Worcester County, Massachusetts, and released said Williams and Pickering as ancillary administrators of said estate in Massachusetts from any liability to further account for any balance in their hands as such ancillary administrators.

William W. Forbes, Administrator
Estate of Charles Williams.

Emogene Nichols

Will.

Be it remembered, that I, Emogene Nichols of Templeton in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

To my beloved husband, Frederick D. Nichols of Templeton, all my estate of whatever nature or kind, both real and personal, of which I may die seized and possessed.

I nominate and appoint my said husband, Frederick D. Nichols, to be the executor of this will, and I request that he may be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on his bond as such executor.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will, this first day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Emogene Nichols
