

be situated or however bounded or described, to hold the same to the said Grace Emogene Stone, and to her heirs and assigns forever.

I also give, devise and bequeath, to my daughter, the said Grace Emogene Stone, all of the personal property to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, wheresoever the same may be, or of whatever the same may consist, intending hereby to include all of my personal estate, consisting of money, household furnishings, wearing apparel &c. the same to be at her disposal.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my nephew, Morton W. Ide, to be the sole executor of this my last will and testament, and having full confidence in his ability, honesty, and Christian character, I request that he may be exempt from giving surety on his bond as such executor, executor.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in the presence of three witnesses, this fifteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Hannah A. Stone.

On this 15th day of January A.D. 1894, Hannah A. Stone, of Dudley, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be her last will, and as witnesses thereof, we three do now at her request in her presence and in the presence of each other hereto subscribe our names:

Abner F. Winsor.

Lelia Winsor.

James D. Ide.

A true record.

Attest: George H. Harlow Register

Case 17014.

William H. Allen.

Know all men by these presents, that I William H. Allen, of West Brookfield, in the County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound, disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

First, I give, bequeath and devise, all of my real estate at my decease, to my son Charles H. Allen, but in case my wife Lucy E. Allen, should survive me, then I reserve the use and income of said real estate to her during her life, to have and hold the same to him the said Charles H. Allen, and to his heirs and assigns.

Second, I give and bequeath, to my beloved wife Lucy E. Allen, the use, income and improvement of all my personal estate, after the payment of all my debts, funeral expenses, and the expense of settling my estate. Also, I give my wife, so much of my personal estate as she may need for her comfortable support.

Third, At my decease, (or at the decease of my said wife, Lucy E. Allen, in case she should survive me,) I give and bequeath all my personal estate which may be left, to my six children, viz: Milton B. Allen, William H. Allen, Jr., Wilbur T. Allen, Freeman M. Allen, Charles H. Allen and Alchida B. Allen, to be equally divided between them. To have and to hold the same to them, the said Milton B. Allen, William H. Allen, Jr., Wilbur T. Allen, Freeman M. Allen, Charles H. Allen, and Alchida B. Allen, and to their heirs and assigns forever. Finally, I hereby appoint my son Charles H. Allen, as executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in presence of the witnesses named below this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred eighty-one.

William H. Allen, Test.

Signed, sealed, published and declared, by the said William H. Allen, as and for his last will and testament, in presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

Bonum Viro.

Martha P. V. Bishop.

Maggie Farley.

A true record.

Attest: George H. Harlow Register.

Case 16927.

Samuel P. Hayward.

I, Samuel P. Hayward, make this my last will and testament.

I give and devise, to my wife Rachel E. Hayward, the use, income, interest, rents and profits, of all my estate, real, personal and mixed, during her natural life.

I give and bequeath, to my son Frank T. Hayward, all my live stock, farming tools, machines and implements, and all produce in the barn, or on my farm, at the time of my decease.

I give and bequeath, to my two daughters Annie C. Shapiro, and Abigail C. Hayward, in equal shares, all my household goods and all articles of personal property, goods and chattels in and about my dwelling house.

The real and residue of my estate, real, personal or mixed, I give and devise in equal shares to my said three children, Frank S. Hayward, Annie C. Chapin, and Abigail C. Hayward, to them and their heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament this eighth day of September A. D. 1885.

Samuel P. Hayward. Seal.

Signed, sealed, published and declared, by the said Samuel P. Hayward, of Whitford, Mass., as and for his last will and testament, in our presence, who at his request, and in his presence and in presence of each, sign our names as witnesses.

Geo. A. Parker.

Hamblet P. Fitch.

Lizzie S. Drake Adams.

A true record.

Attest:

George A. Harlow

Register.

Case 16956.

Joseph P. Burbank.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Joseph P. Burbank, of Sutton, in the County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

First. I give and bequeath, to my beloved wife, Sarah Burbank all of my estate, both real and personal, to have and to hold during her natural life, and if necessary for her support, such portion of the principal as may be necessary for her comfortable support, except as is hereinafter provided.

Second. I give and bequeath, to my beloved wife, to my daughter Sarah M. Conant, wife of C. C. Conant, and to my two sons, I, Howard Burbank, and Malcolm P. Burbank, my library, to be equally divided between them.

Third. I ordain and appoint, my two sons, I, Howard Burbank, and Malcolm P. Burbank, executors of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below this twenty-sixth day of October, A. D. 1870.

Joseph P. Burbank. Seal.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Joseph P. Burbank, as and for his last will and testament in presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto,

Alvin C. Brown.

Ellis W. Inman.

A. J. Brown.

A true record.

Attest:

George A. Harlow

Register.

Case 16957.

Agnes C. Marble.

I, Agnes C. Marble, of Charlton, County of Worcester, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind, make this my last will and testament, in manner following:

I order and direct, that all my just debts shall be paid as soon after my decease, as my executor may find it convenient. I give, devise, bequeath my estate and property, real and personal as follows; and order my executor, hereinafter named, to pay to the following named persons, the sum of money herein mentioned.

To my sisters M. J. Cummings, Eglington Fittle and A. T. Wordbury the sum of Two Hundred dollars each.

To my sister, Emily J. Hill, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my brothers, D. M. Aldrich, and Merrill D. Aldrich, the sum of Two Hundred dollars each.

To my brother, Thos. P. Aldrich, the sum of Two Hundred dollars. One Hundred dollars of which shall be paid at my decease, and the balance in equal annual payments, with any interest that may have accrued thereon, until the whole amount has been paid. I have not forgotten my brother George H. Aldrich, and have purposely made no bequest to him, because it is my wish that he receive nothing from my estate.

To my niece, Lucy C. Haven, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Sally M. Morse, the sum of Three Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Emily M. Palmer, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Mary L. Aldrich, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Emma C. Potter, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Agalena Aldrich, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Mary C. Wordbury, the sum of Three Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Lura A. Wordbury, the sum of Three Hundred dollars.

To my niece, Adah P. Aldrich, the sum of Two Hundred dollars.

To my nephew, Charles H. Hill, I devise my real estate, situated in Charlton.

Agnes C. Marble.