George Mowry

Be it remembered that I George Mowry of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts being weak in body but of a sound and disposing mind and memory, do on this tenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight make publick and declare the following as my last will and testament that is to say.

In the first place after the payment of all my just debts, funeral expenses and charges of administration, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Ann Mowry all my estate both Real and Personal of every kind and description, wherever situate and however divided of which I may be seized and possessed. So have and to hold to her for said during the term of her natural life.

In the next place I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Arana D Aldrich wife of Benjamin D Aldrich all the rest and remainder of my estate both Real and Personal, however divided and wherever situate. So have and to hold to her and her heirs (as separate and exclusive of her said husband or his heirs) and assigns forever.

It is my intention that the legacy herein given to my said daughter shall be for her sole and separate use, free from the interference and control of her said husband and to her heirs and assigns forever and not to her said husband should he survive his wife, nor to his heirs, except the children he has or may have by his said wife.

Lastly I do hereby appoint my beloved wife Mary Ann Mowry sole Executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said George Mowry have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year first above written.

George Mowry

(seal)

Signed sealed published and declared by the said George Mowry to be his last will and testament in presence of us who in our presence, and we in his presence and in the presence of each other subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.
