Case 19141.

George H. Wheelock.

Know all men by the presents that I, George H. Wheelock, of Mendon, in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being in good health, and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking, and making null and void all other last-wills and testaments by me at any time heretofore made.

First. I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Christiana Wheelock, executrix of this my last will and testament, and request that she may be exempt from furnishing sureties on her probate bond.

Second. I give and bequeath, to my daughter, Annie S. Nixon, the sum of Two ($2) Dollars.

Third. All the rest and residue of my estate, whether real, personal or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease, I give, devise and bequeath, to my said wife Christiana Wheelock, with authority to use the income and the principal if necessary for her support, with power and authority, to sell and convey all or any part of my said estate, and make conveyance of the same, and if at the decease of my said wife, there should remain any of my said estate, then such remainder to go to my said daughter Annie S. Nixon, and her heirs forever.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare the foregoing to be my last will and testament in the presence of the witnesses named below, this twenty
