

3rd, I also give and bequeath unto my daughters Olga Karolina, Natalia and Jennie Amalia Ohlin any sum or sums of money that may be deposited in my name in the Peoples Savings Bank in the City of Worcester.

4th, I give and bequeath to my husband, Charles M. Ohlin, my share and interest in the land and tenements situated at number 47 Westminster street in the City of Worcester. I further give and bequeath to my husband all the personal property situated therein to which I have the right title and interest.

5th, The rest, residue and remainder of my property, if any both real and personal, I give devise and bequeath to my said husband Charles M. Ohlin, and to his heirs and assigns forever; and I declare that the provisions for him in the will shall be in lieu of all claims, including curtesy, which he would have had upon my estate had I died intestate.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this First day of August in the year one thousand nine hundred six.

Mrs. Cecelia Nilsen Ohlin (seal)

On this First day of August A.D. 1906, Cecelia Nilsen Ohlin of Worcester Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be her last will: and as witnesses thereof, we three do now, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Alfred Charles N. Petersen
John Henry Prendiville Jr
Frank Paul Christensen

Allowed June 11, 1907.

Case 40094

Lucy A. Jackson

Will.

Be it remembered that I, Lucy A. Jackson of Lancaster in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:

First: To my children, Annie E. Johnson, Mabel F. Burbank and Roy C. Jackson, Twenty Dollars ($20.) each as a remembrance.

Second: To my son, Walter A. Jackson, all the residue of my property, whether real, personal or mixed, wherever the same may be found, without prejudice to any of the legal rights of my husband, David W. Jackson, in said real estate.

Third: I appoint my said son, Walter A. Jackson, the executor of this my last will and testament, and I desire that he shall not be required to furnish sureties on his official bond.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this Twenty-third day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Lucy A. Jackson

On this Twenty-third day of November A. D. 1896 Lucy A. Jackson of Lancaster Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be her last will: and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

S. R. Merrick.
F. E. Field
Catharine Shufelt.

Allowed June 11, 1907.

Case 40098

Adaline A. Davenport

Will.

Be it remembered, that I, Adaline Adams Davenport of Mendon in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will