

Case 28149

Nathaniel A. Inman

Will.

Be it remembered that I, Nathaniel A. Inman of Uxbridge in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory but knowing the uncertainty of this life do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows:-

First. I give and bequeath unto John E. Hollis of said Uxbridge my adopted son, six hundred dollars, to his own use forever.

Second. I give and bequeath unto George H. Hollis whose residence is unknown to me, my adopted son, twenty-five dollars to his own use forever.

Third. All the rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate whatever it may be and wherever it may be situated (except one hundred dollars which I hereby give and bequeath unto General Putnam Taft of Foxborough, in said Commonwealth to his own use forever) I give, bequeath and devise unto my beloved wife, Edna Inman, for and during her natural life, provided she remains my widow and does not again marry, with power to her to use the income from said rest, residue and remainder for her own use and in case from any cause whatsoever her comfort and support shall require it, with power to her to use the whole or any part of my property and estate herein bequeathed and devised to her for life or during her widowhood, and at her death or upon her re-marriage, in case she again marries, I give, bequeath and devise said rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate or so much as shall remain of the same in case it shall become necessary for my wife to use any part of the principal for her comfort and support as hereinbefore provided, unto my son, Nathaniel A. Inman, Junior, to him and his heirs to their own use forever.

Fourth. I hereby appoint and constitute the said Edna Inman my wife, to be executrix of this will and request that she be exempt from furnishing surety or sureties on her official bond.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will this twenty-sixth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four..

Nathaniel A. Inman .

On this twenty-sixth day of January A. D. 1894 Nathaniel A. Inman of Uxbridge Massachusetts signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his last will: and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Charles A. Henry.

Sarah Henry.

W. J. Taft.

Will allowed May 23, 1901.

A true record,

Attest:

Register.

Case 28227

Betsy W. Everett.

Will.

I, Betsy W. Everett of Worcester in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts being of sound mind and memory but mindful of the uncertainties of life, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament. I request my executor to distribute articles of furniture, ornament, apparel, pictures, silver books, and other personal property of a similar nature among the persons designated in a memorandum left with this will and to be treated as a part thereof.

I give and bequeath one undivided half of the estate which I inherited from my father and which is situated on South Market street in Boston in said Commonwealth to my son Oliver Hurd Everett to have and to hold the same to him and his heirs and successors in trust and to pay over quarterly the net income derived from the same after paying the taxes and assessments levied upon the same, the insurance repairs and all other necessary expenses and charges to my daughter-in-law Sarah J. Everett of Cambridge in said Commonwealth widow of Edward F. Everett during her life.

Upon the decease of said Sarah J. Everett I give and bequeath said undivided one half of said estate or the property represented by the same, in case it has been sold and the proceeds of the sale otherwise invested, to my son Oliver Hurd Everett if he shall survive said Sarah J. Everett, and in case of his decease prior to the decease of said Sarah J. Everett then upon her decease to his legal heirs unless he shall by will make disposition thereof which I hereby fully authorize him to do.

The other undivided one half of said estate inherited from my father situated on South Market street aforesaid and all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of every kind and nature after the payment of my just debts, I give and bequeath to my son Oliver Hurd Everett to have and to hold the same to him and his heirs and assigns forever.