

A true record,
 Attest:

George W. Harlow

Register.

Case 18882.

Joseph W. Hastings

So it remembered, that I, Joseph W. Hastings, of Warren, Worcester Co. Mass, being of sound mind, do make, and publish and declare this my last will and testament: First, I hereby give and bequeath to my children Robert W. Hastings and Joseph H. Hastings, each, such a sum of money as shall together with any and all amounts of money which they may individually receive from any Life Insurance payable at my death make the sum of Five Thousand dollars, my intention being that each shall receive from my estate, at my decease, the sum of (Five) Five Thousand dollars, as a first bequest.

Second, I hereby give to my son Robert W. Hastings, my Medical Library and my Surgical Instruments and Ophthalmical Instruments.

Third, I hereby give to my son, Joseph H. Hastings, in addition to his first bequest of Five Thousand dollars, such a sum of money, as my wife Mary C. Hastings, my son Robert W. Hastings, and my son Joseph H. Hastings, shall agree upon, as an equivalent in value to the Library and Instruments given my son Robert W. Hastings.

Fourth, After the payment of my just debts, I hereby give, bequeath, and devise the rest, residue and remainder of all my estate, both real and personal to my beloved wife Mary C. Hastings, her heirs and assigns forever, having the fullest confidence that she will further dispose of the same, as shall be just and right, and in accordance with the kindly feelings which she knows me to entertain toward my brothers, and sisters, nephews and nieces.

And I do hereby appoint my sons Robert W. Hastings and Joseph H. Hastings, executors of this my last will and testament, with the request that they may be allowed to serve without giving legal bonds.

In witness hereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this third day of February, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and ninety one.

Joseph W. Hastings. Seal.

The word "receive" being added before signing.

Signed, published and declared by the said Joseph W. Hastings as his last will and testament, in the presence of me, who in his presence, and in the presence of each other have hereunto set our names as witnesses,

 E. A. Crook.
 W. B. Grand.
 P. B. Hall.

A true record.

Attest: George W. Harlow

Register.

Case 18892.

Rachel S. Wheelock

So it remembered, that I, Rachel S. Wheelock of Mendon, in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory but knowing well the uncertainties of this life, do make, publish and declare this instrument, to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all previous wills, whenever the same may have been made.

First, I direct my executor hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts, expenses of last sickness, and funeral expenses, as soon after my decease as he conveniently can, and to erect a suitable head stone at my grave, within one year after my decease, it is my will, that said head stone shall be granite of like design and finish as the one now standing at the head of my deceased husband's grave.

Second, To my daughter, Sarah F. Inne, I give and bequeath all of my wearing apparel, jewelry, household goods, furniture, crockery, books, pictures and ornaments, that I may leave at my decease, and in case of her decease during the life-time of the testator, then to her children in equal shares, per stirpes.

Third, To my son, Walter W. Wheelock, I give and bequeath the sum of Five Hundred dollars, and in case of his decease during the life-time of the testator, then over to his legal heirs per stirpes.

Fourth, To my son, J. C. F. Wheelock, I give and bequeath, the sum of Five Hundred dollars, and in case of his decease, during the life-time of the testator, then over to his legal heirs per stirpes.

Fifth, All the rest, residue, and remainder of the estate, of which I shall die seized and possessed, both the same real, personal, or mixed, and wherever the same may be situated, I give, devise and bequeath, to my three children hereinafter named, share and share alike; and in case of the decease of any one (or more) of my said