

children, during the life-time of the testator, then the share, (or shares) of each declared child (or children) shall pass to the children of such respectively per-stirpes, but in case of the decease of any one of my said children during the life-time of the Testator, without leaving issue living at the time of his or her decease, then the share or shares of such child, or children shall pass to the survivor or survivors of my said children as above limited, under this section of my will.

Witness. I nominate and appoint my said son, J. C. Wheelock, to be sole executor of this my last will and testament, and ask that he may be excused from furnishing sureties upon his official bond.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declared this instrument to be my last will and testament, this 6th day of August, 1886.

Rachel S. Wheelock.

On this 6th day of August, A. D. 1886, we were present and saw Rachel S. Wheelock, of Mendon, Worcester County, Massachusetts, sign the foregoing instrument, declaring it in our presence to be her last will and testament, and we three do now, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribe our names.

Julius A. Gouge,
Honace C. Adams,
Honace C. Aldrich.

At true record.

Attest: George W. Harlow

Register.

Case 18778.

William D. Trumbull.

Be it remembered, that I, William D. Trumbull, of Upton, County of Worcester, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this my last will and testament.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral charges, I bequeath and devise as follows;

1st. I give and bequeath all the remainder of my estate, of whatever name and wherever situated, whether personal or real, what I now possess or may possess at my decease, to Nancy D. Leland, and George Trumbull, my sister and brother, the same to be divided equally between them share for share.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand, and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my last will, this twenty-fifth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety five.

Wm. D. Trumbull.

On this 25th day of August, A. D. 1895, William D. Trumbull, of Upton, Worcester County, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his last will; and as witnesses thereof, we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribe our names.

George C. Ball,
Thomas C. Kirby,
Stretman C. Brown.

At true record.

Attest: George W. Harlow Register

Case 17471.

Asa C. Goddard.

Be it remembered, that I, Asa C. Goddard, of Princeton, in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of good health and of sound disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament the fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine.

Item 1. I order my executor herein after named to pay out of my estate, all my just debts and funeral expenses, also to erect at my grave a suitable head-stone.

Item 2. I will and bequeath to my brother George C. Goddard, of Holden, all my wearing apparel.

Item 3. All the real and residue of my estate whether real personal or mixed, I will and bequeath one half thereof to the American Baptist Missionary Union, whose office of business is at Tremont Temple, in city of Boston, for the benevolent purposes of said Union. The other one half thereof, I will and bequeath to the American Baptist Home Mission Society for the general purposes of said Society, said Society was formed in New York, in year 1832.

I nominate and appoint Rufus Davis, of said Princeton, to be executor of this my last will and testament, hereby authorizing and empowering my said executor to sell and take deeds to convey any part or all of my real estate in his discretion.